MEDICAL CENTER WOMAN'S CLUB COLLECTION

ARCHIVES

LIBRARY, UNIV. OF TEXAS SOUTHWESTERN MEDICAL CENTER AT DALLAS

Updated 1-20-09

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

The holdings consist of a variety of records by and about the MCWC and—to a lesser extent--the Parkland Women's Club and the Parkland Wives' Club. Types of records include: membership lists, scrapbooks, meeting minutes, reports, letters, invitations, newspaper clippings and photos.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE ORGANIZATION:

The Medical Center Woman's Club (MCWC) was begun in 1947. The objectives of the MCWC are to "unite women of the Medical Center through the medium of friendship and mutual endeavor, and to engage in charitable purposes to benefit the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School at Dallas and Parkland Memorial Hospital. Women of the professional, administrative or technical staffs of the medical center, wives of men holding such positions, and volunteers interested in support of the Medical Center shall be eligible for membership." (From the 2002-03 MCWC Yearbook)

The MCWC has two "child" organizations: The Parkland Women's Club and the Parkland Wives' Club, which have been active for shorter periods of time than the MCWC. Papers originating with these organizations are sometimes intermingled with the papers of the MCWC.
